The Costume Games has grown out of the successful Brighton Japan festival, which over five years played host to what is now the largest outdoor Cosplay Event in the UK. It has been created by a team of people who are behind some of the most successful festivals in the city's calendar.

Paddle Round the Pier Beach Festival	Footfall: 55,000
Pride Village Party	Footfall: 40,000
Brighton Japan	Footfall: 35,000
Brighton's bid for the European Capital of Culture	Footfall: 500,000
Brighton's bid for City Status	Footfall: 250,000

Celebrating the opening weekend of The Rugby World Cup

- Brighton is the only city featuring two games during the opening weekend of the RWC with Japan v S. Africa on the Saturday and USA v Samoa on Sunday
- Japanese and Samoan national rugby teams to train in Brighton in the lead up to the competition
- The Costume Games will therefore attract international and national media coverage
- The Costume Games in prominent Old Steine Gardens will be the major focus of celebrations over five days
- Featuring world's first ever Cosplay Costume Carnival through the streets of Brighton with 5 sections: Asia led by Japan, Oceania led by Samoa, the Americas led by USA, Africa led by S. Africa and Europe led by England
- The Costume Games supper club and bars are the perfect corporate hospitality venue for Brighton based businesses
- Brighton residents and world-leading artists to be invited to collaborate in the artistic creation of The Costume Games in the Old Steine Gardens
